

The Maine Thing

On a recent Monday evening, 5'9" University of Maine guard Amanda Tewksbury stood before the school's entire men's hockey team and shared her faith in Jesus Christ. Her powerful stance belied her diminutive frame as she boldly shared about FCA, about God and about how He has worked in her life.

"Maybe not physically, but spiritually, Amanda Tewksbury is as tough as any football player out there," Maine FCA Area Representative Bob McClure said. "She's not afraid of sharing her faith. As she approaches other athletes and coaches on campus, she's not afraid to show who she is."
