

Sacrifice - Chapel

1 – How does a competitor demonstrate genuine love for his teammates?

- In the book about Coach Joe Ehrmann, “Season of Life” it says that the coaches’ job is to love the players and the players’ job is to love each other.
- Over the last months you have done that.
- Let’s continue that in today’s contest.
- Such love and sacrifice could be the key to a victory today.

2 – This is a great scripture on this theme. 1 John 3:16-18 (read text aloud)

- Christ Jesus is our example – He laid down His life for us.
- We should lay down our lives for our teammates.
 - Some have done this by changing positions in mid-season.
 - Some have made adjustments in coaching style, daily schedules and more.
 - Some are doing it daily as they play through pain, through injuries and more.
 - We’re following Jesus’ example in so doing.
- “Let us not love with word and tongue, but in deed and truth.”
 - Talk is easy, deeds are tough.
 - Talk is cheap, deeds are costly.
 - Talk works on practice days, deeds work on game day.
 - Words are good for newspapers, truth is good for teammates.
 - Words please radio listeners, truth pleases your coaches.

3 – Today, win or lose, we’ll be successful if we:

- Follow Christ’s example and lay down our lives for each other.
- Love not with word and tongue.
- Love in deeds and in truth.
