

Shine On

Ready:

Matthew 5:15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

Hockey Chat: Goal judges were first used around 1877 in Montreal and stood right behind the goal (a brutal job for someone with no pads). Years later, they sat in elevated cages behind the glass and when they would see the puck cross the line, they'd turn on the bright red goal light to signal to everyone that a goal has been scored. The red light is a hockey icon now being a symbol of scoring a goal.

Life Lesson: Do you let others know about the God of your life? Do they see Jesus shining through you or do you hide the light? The brightness of God's love in your life should be seen by all so that everyone may share in it. Many are stumbling in this darkened world that needs the light you are holding.
