Ready:

Acts 6:7 ?So the word of God spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Hockey Chat: 2008-2009 season marked the first time in the 82 year franchise history that every game of the ChicagoBlackhawks was televised. This moved was a big change from the “blackout” ruling that had been in place from earlier ownership. With the new ability to watch the games came a great interest in the sport making the Hawks games the highest attended of any hockey venue for the entire season.

Life Lesson: In the early days of Christianity, evangelizing was the only way to bring people to know of this new Christ. Today we are still the voices to the ears that need to hear. Through mission activities both overseas and at home, the message of Jesus reaches ears and grows the Church so that we may all come to know and share in this great love. I pray that you take those opportunities to share the Word too.
