

Titus 2:11-12

Ready:

Titus 2:11-12 “For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age,”

Hockey Chat: The game of hockey is captivating. It’s easy to get in the zone and get caught up with the game. Sometimes we get so enthralled we forget we have other players to pass to or we are running so high that when someone gives us a bump we take it as a personal attack. To win the game you have to play the game. When the focus moves from the game to you, both will lose. Professional players that try to be the lone-ranger hot-dogs are not needed on any team. Pro players that take dumb penalties are sent somewhere else where they can’t hurt the team by sending the rest of the guys out there short handed so often.

Life Lesson: We have the ability to say “no” to sin. In this day and age it is tough, but we can pass those ungodly, worldly passions for a better, higher desire. Just like a hockey player staying focused and cool headed, you can live self-controlled and upright and your godly virtues will win in the game of life.
