

Non-Musical Chairs

Materials:

*A chair for all but one person.

Make a circle with the chairs as if you were setting up a game of musical chairs, the person without a chair will start the game.

Have everyone seated, the person in the middle of the circle will state a clothing item or physical characteristic, such as, but not limited to, green eyes or blue jeans. (The person in the middle must match the criteria they call)

The persons with those characteristics, etc. will stand up and switch seats, since there won't be a chair for everyone since the person in the middle will need a seat, the last person standing is "it". The game goes on for any amount of time.
