

Heart of a Coach: Gessica Hufnagle

“But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided for you.” – Matthew 6:33

Add Gessica Hufnagle's name to the ever-expanding list of former players turned coaches. As a four-year letter-winner at Notre Dame, the Indiana native officially joined the coaching ranks in 2008 after a standout career at both catcher and outfielder for the Irish. Now in her third season as an assistant softball coach at the University of Southern Mississippi, Hufnagle is learning more each day about what it takes to be a godly coach and spiritual guide for her players.
