

Stay Focused (Huddle Leader Edition)

So, you served as a Huddle Leader at FCA Camp this summer. You had an amazing, life-changing experience, didn't you? You spent your days soaking up God's Word, pouring into your campers, competing for Christ and building meaningful relationships.

But now reality has set in. You battle FCA Camp withdrawal. You miss your fellow Huddle Leaders who, by the end of the week, had become your second family. You long for the constant fellowship with other believers who thought, spoke and acted like you — the people who experienced God the same way you did. But as you return to the real world, your life is again crammed with things like classes, jobs, homework and sports. If only you could have one more day back at camp — back where you felt God's presence constantly.
