

Two for the Show

It was a first for the two brothers, playing on the same Major League field.

Graduating from the childhood batting cages of their backyard, life had come full circle for Matt and Jonny Diaz. Their parents smiled from the stands; they couldn't have been more proud. Each young man had followed his own individual calling, but this Saturday night they both found themselves delivering for Braves' fans at Turner Field—one with a bat, the other with a guitar.
