1 John 2:2

He is the atoningsacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

Set

Hockey Chat: Being on defense (note: not just for defenseman) means stopping the puck from going into the back of your net. Some players do whatever it takes. Players slide and dive to stop the puck. Sometimes taking those hard shots in places that they'll be feeling long after the play moves on. The thought is to take one for the team. To stop the puck from getting to the goalie and keeping the whole team in the game. It's an unselfish move by an individual for the benefit of the whole team.
