

Job 22:21

Ready:

Job 22:21

"Submit to God and be at peace with him; in this way prosperity will come to you."

Set

Hockey Chat: The Stanley Cup is not an award of chance. It's not just an award of hard work either (many top goal scorers of the year have ended the year empty handed). The players give their abilities to the coach of the team who has earned the title of being the leader. In 1995, the eight time Stanley Cup winner, Jacques Lemaire, led the New Jersey Devils, and their sophomore goalie Martin Brodeur, to the first NHL finals victory in franchise history.

Go

Life Lesson: Truly giving our lives to God is a wonderful feeling of peace. When we put our trust in him, he can open the doors and lead us to a wonderful life. Prosperity may not always come as money, as the world has defined it so. But it will come in forms that could never be bought. Give God the opportunity to coach you and you'll see victory!
