Hockey Chat: Passing is a key in the game. Have you ever seen someone try to go end-to-end around 5 attackers only to get stripped before he's able to get a shot off. Life Lesson: Living for your self with no thought and respect for others and God will surely leave you empty. Nobody can surround themselves with enough stuff and personal achievements to make themselves happy. What good is it to have everything and feel nothing? Just look at the one who does truly has everything..... God. Over all He has all and is able to create anything, yet the most important thing he wants is a relationship with you. Because He knows that a loving relationship will outlast anything of this world.
