

Matt Holliday Video Study ? Part I

Ready:

??if you confess with your mouth, ?Jesus is Lord,? and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. With the heart one believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses, resulting in salvation.?

-Romans 10:9-10

St. Louis Cardinals All-Star Matt Holliday has learned a lot in his seven years as a major league outfielder, including many valuable lessons about what it means to compete for Christ. Today, we're starting a four-part video devotion series based on Holliday?s recent interview with FCA?s Sharing the Victory magazine.

To access the video, click the link below to watch or download the clip. After you've watched the short video, take time to answer the questions below. Finish by reading the related Scripture and asking God to work in your heart as a result of what you've learned.

1. In your sport, how much pressure do you feel to produce good stats?
2. Where does that pressure come from?
3. Read Romans 10:9-10. According to God?s Word, what must we do to be saved?
4. According to this verse, does our performance have anything to do with our salvation?
5. God?s love for us is unconditional, meaning it is not based on our performance. No matter what we do or don't do, He will love us just the same. Based on this truth, what does that say about our athletic performance?

6. Have you accepted God's love for you, or are you still striving to earn it?
