

Gatorade Outreach

This outreach has been a success in our huddle. We simply found out how many players are on a specific team (Ex. 90 players on the football team) . We then get 90 small or big gatorades and print sticky scripture notes from the computer and place them on the gatorades. You can deliver the gatorades to the team's locker room. This is a successful project because athletes love gatorade. By placing something they love in their hands, you can share what you love...The Bible!
