

Season of Change

He didn't even know what he'd said. He hadn't prepared for it, and, truthfully, the whole thing was just a blur. He'd had enough on his plate at the moment without trying to recall what he'd said in front of the cameras. As University of Texas quarterback Colt McCoy sat in his hotel room after losing to Alabama in the Jan. 7, 2010, BCS National Championship game, he thought long and hard about what had happened. The loss itself was painful enough, but it was just one battle he was fighting inside. The other was why he'd not even had the chance to compete in the game.
