

Seeing the Light

It's a simple phrase, yet one that means everything to former two-sport Baylor University star Melissa Jones, who ends every email with those encouraging words. Over the last four seasons, "MJ," the Big 12 Conference 2011 Female Sportsperson of the Year, was just as comfortable sharing Christ's love with others as she was distributing the rock to her teammates. Her work ethic, athleticism and faith shined both on and off the court—even as darkness, quite literally, crept in.
