

Heart of a Coach: Karen Harvey, Florida State Cross Country

"We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God: those who are called according to His purpose." – Romans 8:28

One of the most accomplished women's cross country coaches in the nation, Florida State's Karen Harvey has built the Seminoles into a national powerhouse in just her sixth year with the program. Surrounded by several Christ-following coaches at FSU, the Ontario, Canada, native has been emboldened to profess her faith in the Lord while pushing her team to make a run at a national title.
