

Titus 3:8

Ready:

Titus 3:8

This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

Set

Hockey Chat: You can feel effects being out on the ice for the first time in a while. You can also feel the effects from working out or keeping active in preparation for game time. Devoting the extra effort helps you be a better skater. That helps the whole team win. Individual dedication leads to team victory.

Go

Life Lesson: Doing what is good for God builds up each member in the body of the church. They in turn can have a greater effect on other. As each member strengthens their themselves through prayer and meditation on God's word, everyone builds on each other's strengths and helps each other win the game of life.
