Hockey Chat: Yup, that new guy on your team just blew the play. And guess what, you probably will be in the wrong place at the wrong time and make the wrong move too. Don't criticize your teammates for the same things that you do.... making mistakes. Just watch an NHL game and you could play arm chair coach all night. It's easy to say in hind sight what they should've done but much harder to actually be there doing it.

Life Lesson: We are quick to point out the faults in others and we must remember we too will be judge. Are we free from wrong doings as we are claiming others are guilty of. We all fall short of the glory of God and we all have the opportunity to accept His graceful gift of ever lasting life.
