

Case Keenum Video Devotion Series – Part I n/a

Ready:

“He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ.”

-Colossians 1:28 (NIV)

Set

After leading the nation in total offense and passing yards per game last season, University of Houston quarterback Case Keenum was all set to lead the Cougars to another great run in 2010. That all changed, however, when in just their third game Keenum suffered a season-ending knee injury that forced him to the sideline for his senior season. As a man of faith, the injury forced Keenum to rely on the Lord in new ways and to fully trust in the Lord’s ultimate plan.

Today, we’re beginning our four-part video devotion series based on Keenum’s recent interview with FCA’s Sharing the Victory magazine. To access the video, click the link below to watch or download the clip. After you’ve watched the short video, take a few minutes to answer the questions below and read the related Scripture.

1. What are you “promoting” when you compete? Are you promoting yourself, your family, your school? Are you promoting God?
2. In what ways can we promote Christ on the field?
3. How can godly actions on the field model Christ to those watching?
4. Can we also promote Him off the field? If so, how?
