

Sacrifice - Part II

As competitors, we know what it means to sacrifice. But that same concept can apply to our lives of faith.

-

\e80a

Devotional

Baseball is a great team sport. Players work together to make their team successful. One of my favorite plays is when players give up their at bat...

One For The Team

-

\e80a

Devotional

In sports, you hear a lot about two very different kinds of athlete. One is labeled an “underachiever”—an athlete who has a ton of talent but gets...

Everything You’ve Got

-

\e80a

Devotional

Last year, I was on the junior varsity basketball team. Our record was 23-4. It was the best record our coach had ever had. However, he was not...

Living Sacrifice

-

\e80a

Devotional

Self Sacrifice

When most sport seasons end, numbers get crunched. It’s easy for coaches to get caught up in the numbers game, especially as the media highlights...

-

\e80a

Devotional

Willingness to Lose

As a baseball coach for twenty years, I often had to maximize the skills of my players and play “small ball” since my teams were not always blessed...

-

\e812

Bible Study

Sacrifice - Chapel

1 – How does a competitor demonstrate genuine love for his teammates? In the book about Coach Joe Ehrmann, “Season of Life”...

-

\e812

Change Your Sacrifice - Inside Out: Part I

Becoming a successful competitor requires intense dedication and sacrifice. We sacrifice our hobbies, our social life, our...

•

\e806

Article

Love the Game

How much do you love your sport? Is it something for which you make sacrifices? What are you willing to give up to compete...

Fellowship of Christian Athletes © 2025
8701 Leeds Road | Kansas City, MO 64129 | 800.289.0909
Comments or Questions, fca@fca.org
Privacy Policy | Report a Problem | Copyright

Source URL:<https://fcaresources.com/collection/sacrifice-part-ii>