

Fishers of Men

Theme:
Humorous

Plot of Skit:

Two pairs of people are fishing. Two men are talking knowledgeably, and being very serious about their fishing. Two women are just chattering away and waving at the men, neither serious nor quiet. Then the men catch a fish (a small person who flops around toward the boat with hands flopping on the sides of his face). They throw the fish back because it's too small. Then the women catch a big fish (big person, same scenario). They are very proud of their catch and keep it. The men are jealous. Then read Matthew 4:19. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men."

Number of Characters:
Six: four fishers, two fish
