

Sin Box

One person is attracted to a box named “Sin”. He gets into it and is abandoned by his friend. Others come by one at a time, representing various worldly pursuits. Each one offers him their “god” to help him out of the sin box. None of them succeed except for the last “solid” Christian that shares Jesus with him. This is the only way to get out of the trap of sin.

Characters: One in box; one that abandons him; one “jock” that offers football as a way out; one “partner” that offers booze as a way out; one ‘new wave” guy that offers psychics and crystal balls; one “Bible thumper” or TV evangelist” that wants money donations; and one solid Christian friend that leads him to Christ. Use more characters as desired.
